Obituary

Enid LaGloria Muir, also known to everyone as “Mama,” passed away peacefully on June 28, 2026, at the age of 91. Born on January 31, 1935 in Westmoreland, Jamaica, to parents Maude Henriquez and Murcell Wallace. She later met her beloved husband in Kingston, Jamaica, had three children, and emigrated to the Bronx in 1973, where she spent her days committing her life to God, family, and friends.

Enid was the last surviving descendant of both parents, a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend whose warmth and kindness touched all who knew her. For years, she engaged in domestic work, providing exceptional care to all who crossed her path in and out of the workplace.

She leaves to cherish her memory her beautiful children, Michael Muir, Joy Muir Seymour, Faith Muir Hart and stepdaughter, Jennifer Muir; son-in-law, Cedric Seymour and daughter-in-law, Delores Muir along with a host of nieces and nephews, sixteen grandchildren, seventeen great grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren.

She was a God-fearing woman of integrity, who always put the needs of others before her own, and an excellent cook, exemplifying the spirit of Jamaican cuisine in each meal. Not only that, but she took pride in caring for her family, and stood as the matriarch of a vast lineage; transforming her home into a safe haven for anyone seeking to rest and renew. Her legacy of devotion to love and hospitality will live on in all those who loved her.

Though we may mourn the passing of Enid Muir, we give thanks to the Lord for the time we had with her. It may be painful to be without her, but God has called her to His side, therefore we can find comfort in knowing that she will be resting in eternal peace. Safe from suffering and strife, she is in heaven with the Almighty God.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.*

*My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
