Obituary

Good morning to everyone. My name is Justin. Today we gather with heavy hearts yet grateful spirit to celebrate the life of my grandma Ms. Patricia Irving. Patricia Irving, affectionately called Ms. Pat or Auntie Patty was born on January 15, 1952, in Jamaica. In 1988 she migrated to the United States and later bought her home in Queens, New York where she lived a very quiet and fulfilling life until her passing on August 27, 2026. Ms. Pat or simply Patricia was known and loved by many. From her coworkers of over 20 years because that's how long she worked at her job in the healthcare field, to her friends, some she had known all her life and others she met here at this same church. Her zest for life and her unwavering willingness to help anyone in need was just immeasurable to say the least. She was a dedicated member of the Foundation Church. Patricia was always present and was actively involved in different Ministries. Though she is no longer here with us physically her spirit lives on in the lessons she taught us and the love she shared. We will miss her guidance and her dedicated support. Patricia Irving is survived by her daughter Zola, son in law Wayne, grandson Justin, two brothers Shaun and Cyril, nieces, nephews, grand nieces and nephews. As we say goodbye today we remember that our beloved Ms. Pat has simply changed address. Rest Well, you ran your race, your work on this earth is done and your memory will live on in our hearts forever. Love you always.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
