Obituary

*"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and they staff, they comfort me."*

Psalms 23:4

Christopher James Moore Sr. parted this earthly life peacefully on August 24th, 2026, at Henry J. Carter Rehabilitation Center in New York City.

Christopher was born April 1, 1962, in New York City, to the late Barbara J. Moore and William H. Moore.

Christopher attended P.S. 80 and J.H.S. 45. He graduated from Julia Richman High School, June 1980. Chris also attended Laguardia Community College. Chris held several jobs. He was head of Transportation at Samaritan Village in the Bronx. He was also manager of operations at Binding Together Corporation NYC. The job he was most known for was Maintenance Supervisor at Yankee Stadium in the Bronx.

Chris had a love for speed. He loved cars; the faster the car the better. Chris loved to party and was affectionately known as Charlie Chris. He was a devoted and loyal friend. Chris lived his life on his terms and danced to the beat of his own drum.

Chris loved his children and cared for his father until he no longer was able to. Chris leaves a lifetime of beautiful memories to be cherished by his loving family, his son, Christopher J. Moore Jr.; his daughter, Christianey Moore, and a bonus daughter, Ronique Brown; his sister, Adrienne C. Moore; three grandchildren, Makayla Simmons, Tyler Moore, and Amoura Breylin Anderson.

He leaves to mourn six aunts: Betty Moore, Blondell Spruill, Carolyn Green, Henrietta Jenkins, Vernon Mixon, Joan Waters; and two uncles: Charles Moore and Garrie Moore; and a host of cousins and life long friends. The memory of Chris will remain in our hearts forever. May he rest in eternal peace.

Remember Me

*Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May God Bless and Keep You!
