Obituary

Good afternoon, everyone.

Today, we gather with heavy hearts, but also with grateful hearts, to celebrate the life of our dad, Leslie Daley.

Our dad passed away on August 22, 2026, at the age of 79. While losing him has left a space in our hearts that can never truly be filled, we are thankful for the years, memories, laughter, love, and lessons he gave us.

Our dad was a very spiritual man. His faith was an important part of who he was, and he carried that spirit with him throughout his life. He loved to sing, and if you knew our dad, you probably heard him singing at some point. He also loved to tell jokes and make people laugh. He had a way of bringing humor into a room and making people feel comfortable.

Anyone who knew our dad knew that he had a personality that you couldn't forget. He was loving, funny, spiritual, and full of life in his own special way.

In the 1990s, Our dad came to America, where he was reunited with his first love, Iris Daley. Together, they built a beautiful life filled with love, family, and memories. Their story was one of love, and their journey together became an important part of our family.

Our dad was a hard-working man. One of his final jobs here in the United States was working as a cab driver. He worked hard to provide for his family and continued to do what he could for the people he loved.

But more than his work or anything he accomplished, what mattered most was the love he had for his family. He leaves behind his children, mother, sister, grandchildren, family, friends, and so many people whose lives he touched.

Dad, there are so many things we wish we could say to you. We wish we had more time. We wish we could have more conversations, hear more of your jokes, and hear you sing just one more time.

But we know that your voice, your laughter, your love, and your memories will continue to live on through all of us.

You taught us that life should be lived with faith, love, laughter, and family. And although our hearts are broken today, we will carry those lessons with us.

Dad, thank you for being our father. Thank you for the memories. Thank you for the laughter. Thank you for the love you gave us in your own way.

You may no longer be here with us physically, but you will never truly be gone.

You will live on in your children, in your grandchildren, in your family, and in everyone who had the privilege of knowing you.

Rest peacefully, Dad.

Until we meet again, we love you, and we will always carry you in my heart.

Thank you!
