Obituary

Steven Turner, age 78, of Brooklyn, New York, passed away peacefully on August 31, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of dedication, knowledge, craftsmanship, faith, and unwavering love for his family.

Born on January 21, 1948, in Brooklyn, New York, Steven was the beloved son of James G. Turner and Mary Welch Turner, who both preceded him in death. Raised and educated in New York City, he attended Public School 83, Junior High School 210, and George W. Wingate High School.

Steven built an impressive career in the entertainment industry spanning several decades. Beginning as a messenger for MGM Pictures, he worked his way up to become a booking agent and ultimately District Sales Manager for Universal Pictures' East Coast Theaters. He retired from the motion picture industry after years of dedicated service.

Steven was a man of remarkable intelligence, passion, and precision. He had a lifelong fascination with World War II history and enjoyed creating detailed panoramas featuring miniature soldiers, tanks, and battle scenes. He valued knowledge and hard work and enjoyed mentoring younger generations.

His dedication to others was recognized by President Ronald Reagan for his service to the Variety Club Foundation, receiving an award of appreciation for his humanitarian efforts on behalf of children.

Faith was a cornerstone of Steven's life. He was baptized at the First Church of God in Christ, and his belief in God shaped his integrity, compassion, humility, service to others, and devotion to family.

Steven also loved travel and developed a special love for the Philippines, which became a second home to him. He treasured his travels there, as well as a memorable trip to Japan, and had already planned a trip to China.

Steven was preceded in death by his parents and his beloved brothers, Fred Welch, James Turner, David Turner, and Douglas Turner. He is survived by his sister Ernie Lee; brother William Turner and wife Gloria Turner; brother Michael Turner and wife Kimberly Turner; sisters-in-law Maryland, Linder, and Debbie Turner; and his beloved aunt Maddie Kimble ("Aunt Lee").

Above all, Steven was a devoted husband and family man. He is survived by his beloved wife, Jocelyn Turner, and his daughters Michelle, Kathlyn Paulo, and Kaye.

He was the proud grandfather of fifteen cherished grandchildren: Kareem, Infinite, Muhammad, Idrissa, Born Reality, Lord Prince, Allahjustice, UbeQueen, Divine Earth, Allah Reveal, Taishan, Denise, Lucas, Joaquin, and Olivia. He was further blessed with 25 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild, each of whom brought him tremendous pride and joy.

Those closest to him will always remember his favorite saying: "Happy wife, happy life."

Steven will be remembered for his intelligence, generosity, dedication, humor, faith, and unwavering commitment to family. Though his earthly journey has ended, the love he shared, the wisdom he imparted, and the legacy he built will continue to live on through his family, friends, and loved ones.

May He Rest in Peace, Forever Remembered and Forever Loved.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories
that I leave when life is done.*
