Obituary

Crystal Fannin was born on August 4, 1954, in Brooklyn, New York, to Lillian Fannin and Irving Fannin. As a young girl, Crystal and her family relocated to Queens, where she attended Andrew Jackson High School. Following her graduation, Crystal began her long and dedicated career at Jamaica Hospital, starting out in Patient Registration. Her unwavering devotion, work ethic, and deep love for her work earned her immense respect from all of her colleagues. Crystal's personality was wonderfully unique—she was straight to the point, a sharp shooter, and unapologetically real. If you ever got cursed out by Crystal, you just knew it meant she loved you. Crystal was a loving mother to her two children, Devon Fannin and Crystina Fannin. Sadly, her beloved son Devon passed away in 2023 after a courageous battle with brain cancer. She was deeply loved by countless friends, family members, and her extended Jamaica Hospital family. Crystal absolutely cherished her role as a grandmother to her grandchildren, Maccyana "Pumpkin Head" Harris and Shawn "Hip Hop" Gregory. She was also incredibly excited to meet and welcome her new great-granddaughter, Leia'ai Gregory. Crystal's sudden passing has been a profound shock to her family and friends. She leaves behind a beautiful legacy and is lovingly survived by: Her Daughter: Crystina Fannin Her Grandchildren: Maccyana Harris and Shawn Gregory, Her Great-Granddaughter: Leia'ai Gregory, Her Sister: Kathleen Fannin Her Nephew: Cary Bostick Her Cousins: Robert Thomas, Harry Thomas, and "Little Cousin" Robert Thomas Jr. Extended Family: Simone Thomas and family from Virginia.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.*

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
