

ORDER OF SERVICE

Prayer of Comfort Pastor Regina L. Williams

Reading of Scripture Pastor Grover Reed Jr.
Old Testament
New Testament

Musical Selection..... Anthony Brown

Remarks from Family and Friends
(Please limit remarks to two minutes)

Obituary Please Read Silently

Musical Selection..... Anthony Brown

Eulogy..... Rev. Wanda

Benediction Rev. Wanda

Repast

The repast will follow immediately after the service.

Interment

Cypress Hills Cemetery
Brooklyn, New York

We will remember his intelligence, his style, his ambition, his humor, his protective spirit, and his love for family.

Rest peacefully, Robert “Smiley” Harris.

Your journey here is complete, but your story will forever remain a part of ours.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family of Robert Rashan Harris gratefully acknowledges every prayer, call, message, visit, expression of sympathy, and act of kindness extended during this time of bereavement. Your love and support have brought comfort, and we pray that God richly bless each of you.

*With love and gratitude,
The Family*

CELEBRATION — of — Life

A REMARKABLE LIFE
A LASTING IMPACT
A LOVE THAT Will Never Fade

ROBERT R. HARRIS

JANUARY 27, 1980
—
AUGUST 21, 2026

*Loved Beyond Words
Missed Beyond Measure
Forever in Our Hearts*

A LEGACY THAT LIVES ON

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2026 - 10:00AM

Sacred Heart Church of Faith
938 Bergen Street, Brooklyn NY 11238
Rev. Wanda, Officiating

THE LIFE & LEGACY OF ROBERT RASHAN HARRIS

Robert Rashan Harris, 46, of Brooklyn, New York, closed his eyes to this earthly life and entered his eternal resting place on Friday, August 21, 2026. Robert was born on January 27, 1980, at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn to Yvonne Michelle Jefferson and Bobby Dock Harris. He was the first of two children born to Yvonne and Bobby.

Robert accepted Christ as his Savior at an early age while attending Second St. James Disciples of Christ in Brooklyn. His church life helped shape his early years. He sang in the Sunday School Convention Choir, served on the usher board, served as a junior trustee, youth minister, and participated in the Disciples of Christ Youth Fellowship (DCYF).

Robert began his education at P.S. 345 and I.S. 302 before attending Thomas A. Edison Career and Technical Education High School in Queens, New York, where he graduated in 1998. Determined to continue learning, he attended Long Island University and earned a Bachelor of Science with concentrations in Marketing and Management, while also studying Audio Production.

Intelligent, ambitious, and versatile, Robert shared his talents through work in child development, marketing, human resources, the judicial system, case management, information technology, and asset protection. His professional journey reflected his ability to adapt, learn, lead, and pursue new opportunities.

One of Robert's greatest professional joys was entrepreneurship. He created Elevation to New Heights, an entertainment company specializing in branding, business marketing, management, and music production. It brought together his business knowledge, creativity, love of music, and desire to help ideas and people reach greater heights.

In Loving Memory

HIS LEGACY

Those who knew Robert knew that his accomplishments were only part of his story. He was funny, articulate, intelligent, well-dressed, career-driven, adventurous, and deeply family-oriented. He loved to travel, took pride in his appearance, enjoyed pursuing his goals, and carried a strong presence wherever he went.

Robert was also a protector. When he loved someone, he wanted that person safe, supported, and doing well. His family mattered deeply to him, and fatherhood was an important part of his life. To many he was affectionately known as "Smiley," a fitting name for a man whose humor and personality could leave a lasting impression.

During the final chapter of his life, Robert shared his home with his beloved animal companion, Millie, whose companionship brought comfort and unconditional affection.

Cherishing Robert's memory are his beloved sons, Caleb Harris and Julien Grant; his sisters, Shavonne Jefferson (John), Laverne Harris, Audra Harris, Veronica Thomas, Barbara Harris, and Tina Thomas; his brothers, Leroy Harris, Bobby Harris Jr., Derrick Harris, Herbert Harris, and Joseph Harris; his stepmother, Gwendolyn Dunn; his two godchildren; his beloved animal companion, Millie; and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, relatives, extended family members, and dear friends.

Robert's 46 years cannot be measured only by time. His legacy lives in his sons, the family he loved and protected, the friendships he formed, the work he pursued, the business he created, the laughter he shared, and the memories that will continue to be told.