BIOGRAPHY OF DEACON ADELEKE OLADOSU SUNDAY

In Loving Memory of Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday

Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday was born on the 10th of March, 1956, into the distinguished Adeleke family of Otun Ekiti, Ekiti State, Nigeria. He was born to the late Pa Ajayi Adeleke and the late Madam Wuraola Adeleke and was the first child in a family of three children.

Early Life and Education

Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday began his educational journey at Saint Peter Anglican Primary School, Ede, Osun State, where he attended from 1964 to 1970. He subsequently proceeded to Moba Grammar School, Otun Ekiti, Ekiti State, where he completed his secondary education between 1971 and 1975.

Driven by a passion for technical excellence and self-development, he furthered his studies at Technical College, Okitipupa, Ondo State. Thereafter, he gained admission to Yaba College of Technology, Lagos, where he studied Building Technology, laying the foundation for a successful career in the construction and building industry.

Career and Entrepreneurship

Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday commenced his professional career with the Royal Exchange Assurance Company of Nigeria. Through diligence, determination, and a strong entrepreneurial spirit, he later ventured into private business. He became highly respected and successful in the building and plumbing profession, earning the admiration of clients and colleagues alike for his expertise, integrity, and commitment to excellence.

Family Life

In 1990, Deacon Oladosu married his beloved wife, Mrs. Bolanle Adeleke (née Adeoye). Their union was blessed with three wonderful children, and together they built a loving, God-centered home founded on Christian values, mutual respect, and unwavering devotion to family.

Christian Service

Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday was a devoted member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, Alapere, Ketu, Lagos. Following his baptism, he dedicated himself wholeheartedly to the service of God and His church. He faithfully served as a Deacon and contributed meaningfully in various church departments and ministries.

His commitment to the growth of the church was evident in his remarkable contributions to church building projects and other developmental initiatives. His selfless service, generosity, and dedication to God's work left a lasting impact on the church community.

Character and Legacy

Deacon Adeleke Oladosu Sunday was known for his gentle spirit, generosity, humility, and peaceful disposition. He was a loving husband, caring father, dependable friend, and a faithful servant of God. His kindness toward people, unwavering faith, and commitment to the house of God earned him the respect and admiration of all who knew him.

In 2017, he relocated to the United States of America, where he spent the latter years of his life. Though he is no longer with us, his legacy of faith, service, hard work, and compassion continues to inspire his family, friends, and the church community.

Today, we celebrate a life well lived and a man who touched many lives through his love, generosity, and devotion to God.

Sleep on, beloved Deacon Oladosu Adeleke, until that glorious morning when the trumpet of the Lord shall sound, and the righteous shall rise to meet their Saviour.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
