Obituary

Sandra Elisabeth Leonie Wolffe Conton was born in Pembroke Parish, Bermuda, on February 2, 1948 to the late Sadie Wolffe and Gladwyn Gibbons. After the passing of her mother following childbirth, Sandra was raised by her grandparents, Clara Wolffe and Leslie John Wolffe, alongside her adopted mother, Casheena Wolffe.

Sandra attended Central School for her primary education before continuing her studies at Girls High School. After graduating, she moved to New York, where she continued her education by attending classes in Co-op City. Sandra began her working career at Horn & Hardart in New York City, where she later met her husband, Vernon L. Conton, in 1968.

Sandra and Vernon were married on March 29, 1969. That same year, they welcomed their first son, Vernon L. Conton Jr. Five years later, they welcomed their second son, Preston Eugene Conton.

Sandra took tremendous pride in raising her children and caring for others. Her love for children eventually led her to open a daycare, where she poured her heart into caring for and nurturing many children throughout the years. She later worked for Stern's, where she eventually retired. She started a new career as a home health aide. Where once again she was caring for others.

In her later years, Sandra enjoyed attending the Armory and the Doles Center, which became part of her routine and brought her many cherished moments over the past two decades. She had a passion for horse trotting, and, of course, many of us will never forget her love for the casinos. Sandra loved to travel, enjoyed good food, and appreciated an occasional drink. She knew how to enjoy life and create memories along the way.

Above all, Sandra's greatest joy was her family. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She poured endless love, wisdom, and care into her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Sandra leaves to cherish her memory her beloved husband, Vernon L. Conton; her sister, Gladys Wolffe; and her brother, Gladwyn Wolffe. She was preceded in death by Louise Wolffe and Leslie Woffle.

She leaves behind her beloved sons, Vernon L. Conton Jr. and Preston Eugene Conton; her grandchildren, Nicole Conton, Amber Conton, Destiny Conton, Kalyah Conton, Tavelle Conton, and Alexsa Conton; and her great-grandchildren, Madison Wade, Elena Osorio, McKenzie Foster, and Milo Vassallo.

Sandra also leaves behind her beloved nieces, Sharon, Tanya, Janice, and Jenee, and her nephew, Juan, who always brought great joy to her life.

Sandra's love, laughter, strength, and generous spirit will forever remain in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. Though she may no longer be with us in person, the love she gave and the memories she created will continue to live on through her family for generations to come.

Forever loved. Forever remembered. Forever in our hearts.

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.*
