OBITUARY

Jahmal Isaac White was born in Manhattan, NY to Tina White on May 29, 1977. He grew up in St. Albans, Queens.

Jahmal, affectionately known as Jay by family and Smokey by the community was very well known and loved. He spent lots of time on the boulevards of Farmers and Linden.

Jay loved listening and singing along with the old school R&B and Hip Hop hits. He also loved his sports, especially the NY teams. He was overjoyed when the New York Knicks won the championship.

Jay leaves to cherish his life and memory: his mother, Tina Charles, sister, Deirdre White, nephew, Devon White, children, Shadia, Savion, Shamecca and Jahmal Jr, grandsons, KJ, Kairo and Aidan, aunt, Adie (Jack) McSears, cousins, Jacquie, Kevin, Travis and Curtis, along with a host of close family and friends.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not there to see
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
The way you did today
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you.
And each time that you think of me
I know you'll miss me, too.
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.
She said my place was ready In heaven far above
And that I'd have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.
But when I walked through heaven's gates
I felt so much at home.
Then God looked down and smiled at me
From His great, golden throne.
He said, "This is eternity and all I promise you,
Today your life on earth is past but here it starts anew.
I promise no tomorrow, for today will always last
And since each day is the same way
There's no longing for the past."
So when tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart.
