Obituary

Myrna Corm Williams-Holloway, affectionately known as "Mamo", passed away on September 8, 2026, at the age of 51, leaving behind a legacy of love, warmth, and kindness that will be remembered by all who knew her.

Born on November 25, 1974, in Kingston, Jamaica, Myrna carried the spirit, strength, and vibrancy of her birthplace throughout her life. She brought with her a deep sense of family, a generous heart, and a welcoming presence that touched everyone she met. Her life reflected the values of compassion, resilience, and devotion, and she was cherished for the genuine care she showed to others.

Her greatest joy in life was her son, Korak Locke. The bond they shared was the center of her world and the source of her deepest happiness. The love between a mother and her child is something that cannot be measured, and in Myrna's life, that love was evident in every part of who she was. She was devoted to Korak and took great pride in him, always carrying him close in her heart. Her love for him was unwavering, and it remains one of the most beautiful parts of her story.

Myrna was also known for her work and her association with Betta Taste in Hackensack, New Jersey where she contributed her time and presence with dedication. She valued connection and community, and she carried herself with dignity and sincerity in all that she did.

Myrna Corm Williams-Holloway will be remembered with love, admiration, and gratitude for the life she lived and the example she set. Her memory will continue to live on through her son, her family, and all who were fortunate enough to know her. Though she is no longer here in body, the love she gave, the joy she shared, and the kindness she offered will remain a lasting part of her legacy.

These memories are precious gifts that death can never take away.
