Celebration of the Wonderful Life of Robert Lee Troupe

Robert also known as Bobby was born May 27, 1951, being the first of four beautiful children born to the late Bobby and Corrie Troupe. He made his family proud with his outstanding educational and athletic abilities.

He graduated Plainfield High School in 1969 loving all sports especially football. He attended Rutgers University making a name for himself as a Allstar football player.

Bob was an avid NY Giants Fan; a love the he shared with his nephew Rob.

During that time he met and later married Susan P. Brown in 1973.

After college Bobby started his career working at AT&T for 46 years until retiring in 2021.

Together he and Susan lived a happy life in North Brunswick, NJ for 40 years.

They enjoyed traveling to many destinations throughout the years. Aruba was an annual trip which was always a good time.

Bobby and Sue enjoyed quality time together cooking, watching football, water aerobics and shopping.

they were gifted and blessed with God children Adrienne Campbell and Ashton Lattimore Newsome and spoiled them as their own along with themselves.

Bobby was soft spoken gentleman with huge heart and strong spiritual nature. He was blessed to enjoy quality time with his wife being able to enjoy some of the finer things in life.

After a brief illness Bobby transitioned on September 11, 2026 leaving many broken hearts to mourn his loss.

Survived by his wife Susan, loving sisters Allison Troupe and Anna Troupe-Smith (Kevin), brother-in-law Micheal J. Brown, sister-in-law Cynthia Troupe, 2 special nephews Robert C. Troupe and Melvin D. Badger and Niece Ayanna N. Smith and a long list friends and family that will miss him forever.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

-Helen Lowrie Marshall

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.
May God Bless and Keep You!*
