OBITUARY

Eugene Hamilton Fields, 88 of Pomona, New York, passed away peacefully in the early morning hours of September 30, 2026.

He was born on August 9, 1938, in Toano, Virginia. Eugene was the son of the late Charlie and Azelia Fields. He graduated from Bruton Heights High School in Williamsburg, Virginia. After graduation, he moved to New York, where he earned a certificate in Radio Technology and a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Mercy College.

Eugene dedicated approximately 40 years of his professional life to NYNEX as a line manager, where he was known for his hard work, integrity, and commitment to his profession. Following his retirement, he continued working for another 20 years as an IT consultant for the Town of Ramapo. He also enjoyed serving as an Election Inspector for the Board of Elections during voting seasons.

Eugene served his country honorably for eight years in the Naval Air Force Reserve, demonstrating the same sense of duty, discipline, and dedication that characterized every aspect of his life. He was also a member of the Rockland County Buffalo Soldiers organization, and received a Buffalo Soldier's Award in 2021.

Eugene was previously married to the late Wilma Rose. From this union, they were blessed with two sons, Tyrone Hamilton Fields and Dwayne Fields.

Later, Eugene found love again and married the former Jean E. Wattle. Together, they welcomed two sons, Christopher Adam Fields and Gary Brian Fields. Gene and Jean shared 48 years of love, companionship, and happiness. Together, they enjoyed raising their sons, spending time with family, and traveling the world.

At an early age, Eugene accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior and joined Chickahominy Baptist Church. After moving to Rockland County, New York, he united with First Baptist Church in Spring Valley, New York. Eugene was deeply devoted to his church, where he faithfully served as a Trustee for 20 years, and gave his time, leadership, and unwavering commitment to the congregation. His faith guided his life and inspired those around him.

Eugene will be remembered for his warmth, generosity, and ability to make everyone feel welcome. He was also known for his remarkable ability to fix almost anything. His love for family and community touched many lives. He made it a priority to stay connected with his family and traveled to Williamsburg, Virginia, every summer to spend time with relatives and maintain those important family bonds.

As the first college graduate among his siblings, Eugene blazed a trail for generations to come. His determination and belief in the value of education opened doors for his family and served as an enduring example of perseverance, achievement, and opportunity. His accomplishments demonstrated the importance of hard work, education, and believing in what is possible.

Eugene's life reflected his faith and his trust in God. His journey reflects the words of Proverbs 3:5–6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." Eugene's life was marked by faith, family, service, hard work, and perseverance that reflected his commitment to trusting God and following the path He had placed before him.

Eugene's memory will forever remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved him. His life was a testament to the importance of faith, family, education, hard work, service, and perseverance. The legacy he leaves will continue through his children, grandchildren, extended family, and the many lives he touched throughout his 88 years.

He was predeceased by all his siblings: Dorothy Richardson (Douglas), James Fields (Norma), Willie Fields (Helen), Claudette Martin, Sarah Fields, and Mary Fields.

He is survived by his devoted wife, Jean Fields; his four sons, Tyrone Hamilton Fields and his wife Manuela; Dwayne Fields; Christopher Adam Fields; and Gary Brian Fields; his three grandchildren, Naomi Corynn Fields, Ethan Hunter Fields, and Sage Acacia Fields. He also leaves behind a host of nieces and nephews; great-nieces and great-nephews; great-great-nieces and great-great-nephews; and numerous cousins, extended family members, and friends.

A LOVING TRIBUTE TO

Eugene Hamilton Fields

E - Ever-so-loving husband to Jean; a beloved Dad and "Pop-Pop" as you were affectionately known,

U - United in marriage for 48 years, you were the center and heart of your home;

G - Greatest and Grandest Uncle; to us, you were the best in the land,

E - Encouraging us, inspiring us, offering a listening ear or a helping hand.

N - Never failing to call or text, or to visit family and friends while in your hometown;

E - Excitement and joy would fill our hearts whenever you and your family came down!

H - Having a passion for education, you became the first college graduate on the Fields side,

A - All of the family beamed with wonderful feelings of joy, admiration, and great pride!

M - Mighty Man of God, you served with dignity and honor in your country, community, and church,

I - IT Consultant and Election Inspector, upon retirement from NYNEX after 40 years of dedicated work;

L - Leader who merged faith and skills to help manage church business and congregational care,

T - Trustee who willingly took the time and used wisdom to advise, to support, and to share.

O - Outstanding Buffalo Soldier Awardee is just one of the many accolades you can claim,

N - Naval Air Force Reservist whose meritorious service brought honorable rank to your name.

F - Forever you will remain in our hearts and minds as the amazing Patriarch of the Fields Family Tree,

I - Indeed you were our leader, our legend, our legacy - a monumental hero of our history.

E - Extending gratitude to God for 88 years, for the gift of your life, by which we've been truly blessed,

L - Leaving a world of sickness and pain, God has now called you home to rest;

D - Diligently and so courageously you fought a good fight, and you passed this life's test;

S - Shed your cap and put on your crown, for surely, you've given your very best!

Lovingly dedicated on behalf of Your Virginia Family

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement.

May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
