Forever in Our Hearts

Rest In Peace

Obituary

Gwendolyn (Gwen) Sanders was born on November 10, 1960, in Denmark, South Carolina, to the late Warren and Geraldine Green. She later relocated to New Jersey, where she continued her education in the Jersey City Public School District. Gwen graduated from Henry Snyder High School and entered the workforce, beginning a life journey defined by determination, independence, and perseverance.

Throughout her life, Gwen worked in merchandising and held various other positions. She was a hardworking woman who believed in earning an honest living and providing for her family. Her strength, dedication, and independent spirit were reflected in the way she approached life and embraced her responsibilities.

One of Gwen's greatest blessings was becoming a mother to her two beloved children, Terrell Sanders and Tempesst Sanders-Western. Her children held a special place in her heart, and she worked diligently to provide for them, guide them, and surround them with love. Being a mother brought purpose and meaning to her life, and her love for her family remained a defining part of who she was.

Gwen also had a special love for cooking, a passion she shared with her late mother, Geraldine Green. Through this cherished pastime, she carried forward the warmth and traditions of her family.

On October 11, 2026, Gwen departed this earthly life. She was preceded in death by her beloved parents, Warren and Geraldine Green; her sister, Sara Yearwood; and her niece, Ashanti Green.

Gwen leaves behind a loving family to cherish her memory: her two children, Terrell Sanders and Tempesst Sanders-Western; her son-in-law, Clifton Western; her grandchildren, Nicki Bronner, Tiana Sanders, and Adonis Evans; her sisters, Carolyn Green and Juanita Fields (Robert Fields); her brothers, Kelvin Green and Paul Green (Chantel Green); along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members, and dear friends.

Though our hearts are heavy with grief, we find comfort in the memories Gwen leaves behind. Her life was a testament to hard work, independence, perseverance, and devotion to family. The love she gave, the sacrifices she made, and the moments she shared will remain treasured in the hearts of those who knew her.

Today, we release her from the cares of this earthly life and entrust her to the loving hands of God. May her family find strength in His promises, peace in His presence, and comfort in knowing that love never truly dies. Though Gwen will be deeply missed, her memory will live on through her children, grandchildren, and all those whose lives she touched.

A Scripture of Comfort

"Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4 (KJV)

Forever Loved, Forever Remembered

Gwen, your earthly journey has ended, but your love will continue to shine through the lives you touched. You will forever hold a special place in our hearts, and your memory will be cherished for generations to come.

Rest peacefully, Gwen. Until we meet again.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
