Obituary

Lillian Blount was born on December 13, 1941, in Edenton, North Carolina, to the late Ella Mae Blount-Norman and Roosevelt Norman. She was the second of six children and was preceded in death by her brother, Johnny Blount, and sister, Evelyn Blount-Patrick.

As a young adult, Lillian, affectionately known as “Lilly,” moved to Queens, New York, before settling in Harlem, where she discovered her passion for helping others. Blessed with a generous heart and an open door, Lilly welcomed everyone with kindness, a warm meal, and a place to stay whenever needed.

Her home-cooked meals, especially her famous potato salad and sweet potato pies, were always a delight and a reflection of the love she poured into everything she did. As a babysitter, Lilly cared for countless children throughout the years, giving parents peace of mind knowing their little ones were in loving hands.

Lilly will forever be remembered for her generosity, her nuggets of wisdom, and her wonderful sense of humor. Simply put, she was hilarious! Those who knew her will cherish not only what she gave but also the laughter, warmth, and joy she brought into their lives.

On October 10, 2026, Lillian peacefully transitioned into eternal life at the age of 84. Though she will be deeply missed, her love and the many lives she touched will never be forgotten.

Lilly leaves to cherish her precious memory her four children: Harold Blount (Helene), Ronald Blount, Katrina Avent (Ronald A.), and Frederick Foster; four grandchildren: Tabitha Rosado-Ortega (Emanuel), Derrick Avent, Tracy Avent, and Marcus Blount; and four great-grandchildren: Mischa, Alexander, Lauren, and Gabriel.

She also leaves her beloved “Bonus Daughter,” Joyce Walker; three siblings: Jeroline Patrick of North Carolina, Weldon Blount, affectionately known as “Lil Bruh,” of Pennsylvania, and Robert Blount of Pennsylvania; along with a host of other loving relatives and dear friends.

Lillian’s beautiful legacy reminds us that sometimes the greatest gift we can offer another person is simply a place where they feel loved, welcomed, and cared for.

Rest peacefully, Lil. Your love, laughter, and open door will never be forgotten.

Gone But Not Forgotten

DON'T THINK OF HER AS GONE AWAY.
HER JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN.
LIFE HOLDS SO MANY FACETS,
THIS EARTH IS ONLY ONE.

JUST THINK OF HER AS RESTING
FROM THE SORROWS AND THE TEARS
IN A PLACE OF WARMTH AND COMFORT,
WHERE THERE ARE NO DAYS AND YEARS.

THINK HOW SHE MUST BE WISHING,
THAT WE COULD KNOW TODAY,
HOW NOTHING BUT YOUR SADNESS,
CAN REALLY PASS AWAY.

AND THINK OF HER AS LIVING,
IN THE HEARTS OF THOSE SHE TOUCHED.
FOR NOTHING LOVED IS EVER LOST,
AND SHE WAS LOVED SO MUCH.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement. May God Bless and Keep You!
