I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated but to the happy,
I am at peace and to the faithful,
I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon the shore
gazing at a beautiful sea,
Remember me.
As you look in awe at a mighty forest
and its grand majesty,
Remember me.
Remember me in your hearts, in your thoughts,
and the memories of the time we loved.
The times we cried, the battle I fought,
and the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will have never gone.

All Souls Crematory

ORDER OF CELEBRATION

Pauline Farrior, 83, of Queens, New York, peacefully transitioned from this life on Thursday, October 22, 2026, in the comfort of her home in Rochdale Village.

Born on May 14, 1943, in Jacksonville, North Carolina, Pauline was the beloved daughter of the late Luella Rhodes and Clifton Rhodes. She graduated from Georgetown High School before eventually making New York her home.

Pauline was a woman of grace, quiet strength, and unwavering devotion to those she loved. Her warm spirit, kind heart, and genuine concern for others left a lasting impression on those who knew her. She had a special way of making others feel welcomed, valued, and loved.

Throughout her professional career, Pauline demonstrated a strong commitment to service and responsibility. She dedicated more than 25 years of service as a Traffic Enforcement Agent and was later promoted to the position of Inspector. Her strong work ethic, dependability, and dedication were evident throughout her years of service.

Pauline was a faithful and devoted member of St. Luke Cathedral, where she served with love, dedication, and a genuine heart for God's people. Throughout her years of membership, she faithfully served on the Usher Board, the Trustee Board, and in the Food Pantry Ministry. Her commitment to the work of the Lord was not simply a responsibility but a reflection of her faith and willingness to serve others.

Throughout the years, Pauline remained steadfast in her commitment to St. Luke Cathedral, faithfully giving of her time, talents, and heart to the ministries she loved. Whether welcoming worshippers, supporting the needs of the church, or helping provide food for families in the community, she served with humility, dedication, and a genuine love for others. Her presence and contributions will always be remembered and cherished by her St. Luke Cathedral family.

While Pauline took pride in her professional accomplishments and church involvement, nothing brought her greater joy than her family. She was a loving wife, devoted mother, cherished grandmother, and proud great-grandmother. Her family held a special place in her heart, and the love she poured into their lives will remain a treasured part of her legacy.

Pauline leaves to cherish her precious memory her loving husband, Lloyd Farrior; her devoted children, Freida and Gregory Farrior; her beloved grandchildren, Aziyza, Adrianne, Faaiqa, Mubiyna, Shimshown, Leah, and Ishmael Farrior; her cherished great-grandchildren, Marcus, Quadir, Kamil, Yomo Jr., and Amire Farrior; along with extended family members, her St. Luke Cathedral family, and dear friends.

Though her earthly journey has come to an end, the love she shared, the lives she touched, and the example she set will continue to speak for generations to come.

Her life was a blessing, her love was a gift, and her memory will forever be treasured.
