Obituary

Donna Carter was born on September 4, 1953 to Louise and Eugene Jones in Newark, New Jersey.

She attended various Newark p\ublic schools, including Warren Street Elementary and Central High School. As a child, Donna was fun-loving and enjoyed engaging in good-natured mischief. She also had a contagious sense of humor. Very proficient at home decorating, Donna could make an ordinary room look like a palace.

After having three daughters, Donna embarked upon a career as a teaching professional. She worked in the classroom at St. Joseph's School for the Blind in Jersey City, New Jersey, as well as Windsor Academy and Windsor Prep in Passaic County. She also worked at Cerebral Palsy of New Jersey in Wayne as well as various other venues caring for disabled individuals.

She is preceded in death by her parents Louise and Eugene Jones, daughter Keisha Montague-Jordan, husband Steve Carter as well as brothers Robert Jones, Reginald Cooper and sister Cheryl Dorvil.

She leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Damonya Bronson and Jamira Young; granddaughter, Shannon Montague; brothers, Douglas Jones and Rodney Jones; sister, Holly Michelle Cooper-Robinson, and a host of other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
