IN LOVING MEMORY

Parker Pointer, Jr. of Brooklyn, New York passed away peacefully at age 83 on October 30, 2026, with his loving daughter Zenobia by his side.

Born to the late Parker Pointer, Sr. and Georgia Wallace Pointer in Hillsboro, Alabama on October 7, 1943, Parker accepted Christ at an early age at Jerusalem Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Elijah Watkins. He graduated from Tennessee Valley High School in 1962. Later he moved to Brooklyn where he joined Cedar of Lebanon Baptist Church. Parker married the love of his life, Pearl Marie Preshae. From their union they had two beautiful daughters, Patricia and Zenobia. They later divorced but remained best friends.

Parker was a man who truly knew how to live life to the fullest. He was employed at Brooklyn Public Library (BPL) for 29 years as a Special Officer, making lifelong friends along the way. And he brought vibrant energy wherever he went. You could often find him testing his luck at the casino or spending hours at the garage, shooting the breeze with his mechanic Buck and lifelong friends. He had a massive appetite for life and an adventurous spirit when it came to food, always excited to try unique dishes like possum, rabbit, deer, and turtle stew.

His passion for cars was legendary. Whether he was cruising with the top down in his red Cadillac, enjoying the precision of his Corvette, or riding in the comfort of his Lincoln, he was always in his element. But nothing quite compared to the pride he felt whenever he was behind the wheel of his absolute favorite car, his black Mercury Marauder.

Some of his happiest moments were spent on the open road during the summer, driving down south with his grandson, Tyreek. Those road trips were filled with laughter, the music of Smokey Robinson, and the anticipation of gathering with his children and family in Alabama.

Parker had a kind spirit and a deeply giving soul. He embodied hard work and dedication, providing for his family and often helping others. He was the best father and grandfather anyone could ask for. His presence, charisma, and warm heart will be sorely missed. His dapper style, too. He could light up a room by showing up in his classic suits and fedora hats.

Parker's family and loved ones will remember his quiet strength and the feeling of safety his presence inspired. He modeled the value of patience and showing up when it mattered. He showed love by being there whenever you needed him, offering careful advice and phoning just to check in. His legacy lives on in the love he gave so freely and, in the lessons, he taught: to make the most of life and to be kind to others.

Parker Pointer, Jr. leaves to cherish his memories his children: Lorenzo Foster, Jennifer Alexander (William), Angela Byrd (Robert), Alonzo Owens (Georgia), John Wiggins (Lalkia) of Decatur, Alabama; and Patricia Amelia Pointer, Zenobia Michelle Pointer (Kenneth) and Heather Pointer of Brooklyn, New York. He was preceded in death by his daughter, Vicky Henderson.

He leaves to cherish his memories his siblings: Sarah Pointer of Brooklyn, New York; Jonathan Pointer (Molly), Daniel Pointer, Samella Goines (James), Lorene Stanley (Bobby), and Sherry Pointer of Hillsboro, Alabama; and James Pointer (Janice), Louise Jones (Richard) and Deborah Clopton (Marlin)of Decatur, Alabama. One brother, Clarence Pointer, and two sisters, Earlene Pointer Adams and Clara Pointer Johnson of Decatur, Alabama, preceded him in death.

Parker also leaves behind 17 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild, along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, dear friends, and his companion and special friend, Claire Battle.

FAMILY TIME

MORE MEMORIES

What Is A Father?

He is strong and bold and will never let you fail
He is words of wisdom and a heart of gold.
He is a maker of dreams and big arms to hold you
He is your rock in times of trouble in your life
He is a friend-
Above all else a Father is Love.

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement. May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
