Obituary

Life of Faith, Love, Service, and Devotion

Lydia Jackson was born on March 13, 1944, in St. Ann, Jamaica, West Indies, to Vinnette Francis and Henry Carnegie. Her life was marked by faith, perseverance, compassion, and a dedication to serving others.

At age 17, Lydia accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. Her faith remained a source of strength and guidance throughout her life. In 1980, she migrated from Jamaica to the United States, where she built a life grounded in hard work, kindness, and devotion.

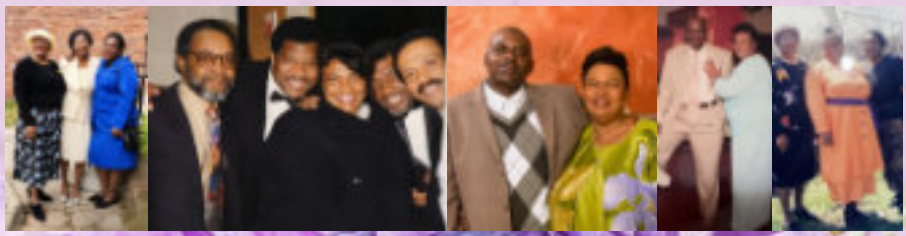

Lydia spent much of her working life caring for others. She worked as a babysitter, helping families care for their children, and later as a nursing aide, offering comfort and assistance to nursing home residents. Her compassion and patience were evident in the care she gave.

In 1989, Lydia joined Emmanuel Baptist Church, where she faithfully served as a member of the choir and as an usher. Whether lifting her voice in praise or welcoming others into worship, she gave generously of her time and spirit.

Lydia met Frederick Jackson, and their loving partnership led to marriage in 2006. Together they built a home and shared a life of love and companionship.

Lydia leaves to cherish her memory her beloved husband, Frederick Jackson; one sister; one niece; her beloved cat, Roxy; other relatives; her Emmanuel Baptist Church family; and dear friends. Her legacy of faith, service, and love will remain with all who knew her.

Today we thank God for Lydia's life and find comfort in the promise of eternal rest. "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever." — Psalm 23:6 (KJV)

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand; but it shall not come nigh thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, thy habitation; There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone. Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet. Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him, and honour him. With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.

Note of Thanks

The family of the late Sis. Lydia Jackson wishes to express our appreciation to our many friends for your prayers, cards, flowers and other acts of kindness shown during our time of bereavement.
