Obituary

It is with immense sadness that we gather here today to pay our last respects and celebrate the life of Faith Ann Thompson, who transitioned from this life one month ago at the age of sixty-seven (67).

Born on the fifteenth (15th) of January, Faith lived a life true to her namesake, possessing a never-ending assuredness in the goodness of her family and friends.

Faith was a woman of strength beyond measure, enduring illness and misfortune yet consistently rising above adversity, illness, and treachery. Her self-sacrifice, tolerance, and measured hand were among the qualities that allowed both her and those around her to flourish.

The youngest of fourteen (14) children, Faith was not just the lastborn but also the youngest daughter, occupying a special place within a family whose bonds extend across generations. She is survived by six (6) sisters, five (5) brothers, and a host of nieces and nephews, all of whom carry with them the memories, lessons, love, and gifts she imparted throughout her long life.

Faith will be remembered not only for the sacrifices she made, but for the love that inspired them; and not only for the years she lived, but for the lives she touched along the way. We mourn her absence but take comfort in knowing that the love and memories she leaves behind shall remain with us always.

May she rest in eternal Peace.

The Old Account Was Settled

Verse One
There was a time, I know,
When in the book of heaven,
An old account was standing
For sins yet unforgiven;
My name was at the top
And many things below,
I went unto the Keeper,
And settled long ago.

Refrain
Long ago, long ago,
Yes, the old account was settled long ago;
And the record's clear today,
For He washed my sins away,
When the old account was settled long ago.

Verse Two
The old account was large,
And growing every day,
For I was always sinning,
And never tried to pay;
But when I looked ahead
And saw such pain and woe,
I said that I would settle
And settled long ago.

Verse Three
When at the judgment bar
I stand before my King,
And He the book will open,
He cannot find a thing;
Then will my heart be glad,
While tears of joy will flow,
Because I had it settled,
And settled long ago.

Fourth Verse
O sinner, seek the Lord,
Repent of all your sin;
For thus He has commanded,
If you would enter in;
And then if you should live
A hundred years below,
E'en here you'll not regret it,
You settled long ago.

Precious Memories

Acknowledgement

The family of Faith Ann Thompson sincerely thanks you for your prayers, your presence, and every act of kindness shown during this time. Your love has been a great comfort to us during this most trying time. Although no words can fully express the depth of our appreciation, please know that every act of kindness has been deeply felt and all acts will be remembered.

We thank you.

A Silent Tear

Just close your eyes and you will see all the memories that you have of me
Just sit and relax and you will find,
I'm really still there inside your mind.
Don't cry for me now I'm gone,
for I am in the land of song.
There is no pain, there is no fear,
so dry away that silent tear
Don't think of me in the dark and cold.
for here I am, no longer old.
I'm in that place that's filled with love,
known to you all, as "up above".
