Obituary

Jessie D. Hawkins (affectionately known as Niecy) was born in New York City at Harlem Hospital on May 15, 1968, to the late Jessie R. Hawkins (her namesake). She was educated in the NYC Public School System.

Niecy was the youngest of five children and is preceded in death by two of her siblings, Chester Hawkins and Charles Hawkins Jr. and her son Victor Fripp.

She worked in various industries throughout her life including retail, home care and housekeeping to name a few.

Niecy was so much fun and funny. You knew when she arrived to any function, you were in for a great time.

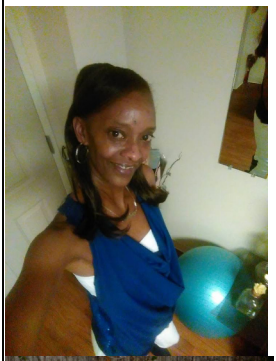

She was a caring, kind and fun-loving person, who made every room she walked into brighter. To know her was to love her.

Niecy was always herself, no fluff, no putting on airs, just her authentic self. God made her so special. She was the epitome of grace and courage.

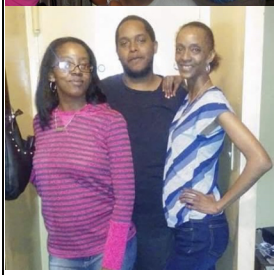

Niecy passed away on Sunday, November 1, 2026 peacefully in her sleep.

She is survived by her daughter, Shannal Hawkins; sisters, Beatrice Mitchell and Cheryl Hawkins (brother-in-law Howard); her nephews, Caesar, Patrick, Michael & Jayson; her niece, Nichelle; her grandson, Jeremiah and a host of other relatives and friends whose lives were made richer by knowing her.

Niecy was so loved and will be greatly missed. She will forever live in our memories and in our hearts. Rest well.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
