Obituary

Elder Martha Lee Wilson, lovingly known as "Aunt Mott," was born on August 24, 1942, in Chatham County, North Carolina, to the late James and Maxie Wilson. On November 9, 2026, at Duke Raleigh Hospital in Raleigh, North Carolina, she finished her course and departed this life at the age of 84.

Martha graduated from Apex Consolidated School. She went on to work in Transportation for Wake County Public Schools for more than 20 years, making sure the children in her care got where they needed to go until she retired.

God ordained her union with the late Russell Wilson, and together they built a home rooted in faith, love, and family.

As an adult, Martha gave her life to God and received the Holy Spirit. She was a longtime member of Deliverance Tabernacle Holiness Church under the leadership of the late Bishop Eddie Bass, Sr., where she served faithfully for many years as an Elder and minister. She was a sanctified, Holy Ghost filled woman who loved to sing and praise the Lord, and she believed in the power of prayer and praise.

Her love showed up in everything she touched. She enjoyed gardening, pottery, and feeding the homeless. Above all, she took care of her family and would give her last to anyone she loved.

She was preceded in death by her parents, James and Maxie Council; husband, Russell Wilson; children, Cheryl Wilson and Michael Wilson; and siblings, Harding "Horton" McCiver, Ray Wilson, Lewis Wilson, and Gloria Ray.

To share and cherish her precious memories, she leaves her children, Manuel "Pete" Wilson (Synetta), James "Slick" Wilson, William "Tank" Wilson, Jerome Wilson, and Bobby "Leon" Wilson; 24 grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, church family, and friends.

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith."

A Legacy of Love

A woman of faith, a heart full of grace,
God's love and kindness reflected her face.
A faithful servant who answered His call,
She gave love freely and welcomed them all.

A devoted mother, grandmother, and friend,
Her love and her kindness will never end.
Through family, church, and the lives she touched,
She gave so much and loved so much.

Though we will miss her loving embrace,
We find comfort knowing she's finished her race.
Her earthly work is done, her victory won,
Now resting peacefully with the Lord she loved.

Forever loved, forever missed, and never forgotten.
