Obituary

It Is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Steven Lamar Williams, also known as “Stevo.” Steven was the first born out of four children. He played basketball and football as a child. Steven was very outgoing; he always kept a smile on his face. He was a man of many IDEAS and had no problem sharing them. Steven loved his food, his family , nature and the New York Knicks, no matter how bad they were doing. He had a great sense of humor and was a jokester. Steven was highly protective over his family. If we called him, he came running.

Steven became a hardworking man who worked 10 to 12 hour shifts. He was also highly intelligent; if you asked him a question and he did not know the answer; by the next time you saw him he had it for you.

Steven leaves behind 3 sons, Demetrius, Gideon and Steven Jr. and a grandchild. He also leaves behind three siblings, Shanae, Robert, Krista and parents Christopher and Leila Williams. He leaves behind 3 nieces, Syraih, Destiny and Baby Sarah along with a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, family and friends.

Now that Steven has gained his wings, we know he will continue to protect his family, just like he did on earth.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
