Obituary

Rosalyn Lee was born on October 27, 1955, in Paterson, NJ. She was the only child of Barbara Ann Lee and Enda Jackson.

Rosalyn attended Paterson Public School #15 and Eastside High School.

Affectionately known as "Roz," "Sister Roz," "Momma Roz," and "Grandma Roz," Rosalyn wore all her titles well. Known for her beauty, sassiness, flair for dancing, and most of all, her loyalty, she treated everyone like family and showed love to all wherever she went.

Rosalyn was very spiritual and loved the Lord. She became an ordained minister on April 27, 2014, and would later embark on several speaking engagements throughout Pennsylvania. She would later join Love Fellowship Tabernacle on May 21, 2017, under the leadership of Bishop Hezekiah Walker. She also served with the Greater Works Food Pantry Ministry. Rosalyn went even further by completing the Chaplaincy Teachers Training on May 21, 2005.

Rosalyn was employed as a Nursing Assistant at Bergen Pine Hospital in the early '80s and also for the Elizabeth James Temp Agency in White Plains. She later relocated to Pennsylvania, where she joined an outreach program, feeding the homeless and finding shelter for them as well. Rosalyn later became an ambassador for Campus Safety at Lincoln College, where she would chauffeur the president of the school in what she would call "The Stinkin Lincoln," the car she loved dearly.

Rosalyn was so highly regarded that she was chosen to train and attend international workshops in the UK. She later returned to the United States and began working at the 2000 Democratic National Convention held in Philadelphia, PA. Amazingly enough, Rosalyn set her sights even higher when she ventured into entrepreneurship by starting "Rozz's Helping Hands," a home care agency where she employed and encouraged many more people to start in that same field. Not only did she pursue home care, but she also started a catering service.

Rosalyn's last place of employment was at Seniors Helping Seniors, where she enjoyed spending time with Mr. Wes and Ms. Faye. Rosalyn worked until she was no longer able to. She fought long, and she fought hard. Even from her youth into adulthood, she never gave up.

Her strength will continue to live on. She was loved and admired, but most of all, she brought many people to the Lord. One of her famous sayings was, "Intercede, but don't interfere."

On Wednesday, October 28, 2026, Rosalyn departed this life.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Barbara Ann Lee and Enda Jackson; grandmother, Eva Burton; aunts, Shirley M. Lee and Patricia Turner; and uncles, William T. Lee, Ervin Lee, and John Roberts.

Rosalyn is survived by one daughter, Latoya Lee; two sons, Michael G. Rivers Jr. of PA and Bryan Antrom Jr.; five grandchildren, Derek E. Huggins, Taylor Nicole Evans of NC, Micah Rivers of the Netherlands, Mia Rivers, and Liam Rivers, both of Brooklyn, NY; and a host of other friends and family.

Mommy

Growing up I always knew you were a great mom, but there's something about being an adult that makes me appreciate you even more because now I understand you weren't just raising me, you were giving me values, building character, and showing me what matters most in life.

Sleep for now, I miss you and I love you

A strong woman knows how to keep her life in order. Even with tears in her eyes, she still manages to say "I'm ok" with a smile. I'm sending this to you all because you are strong women. That's why God heard your prayers and said "Hard times are over, as long as you believe in Him"

Love Roz

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement.
May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
