Love Letter to Lil Grand-Ma

Lil Grandma, we love YOU!!! Grandma you fought sooo hard, and we know you were so proud of our parents, your children. All that mattered to you was your Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, love of family and our being together. And, with that, we truly believe you are resting in peace, and you finally allowed Carolyn and Sheila to welcome you home. They missed their Mommy just was much as we will, and now it's their turn to have you.

Acknowledgements

A special acknowledgement to the staff of Workmen's Circle MultiCare Center and MJHS Hospice and Palliative Care. We'd also like to extend special gratitude to Nelly Moe, who provided comfort and companionship to Our Mom, Georgia over the last few years, both at home and Workmen's Circle.

Obituary

Georgia Mae McConico was born on February 12, 1932, to Alma Estelle Gordon and George Mosely, n Bessemer, Al. She was their second child. Georgia was raised by her loving grandparents, Susan and Beverly Mosely. She was baptized at the First Baptist Church in Brighton, AL. Geogia attended Thomas Elementary and Parker High Schools in Birmingham, AL.

Georgia initially came to NYC, at the age of 18 in 1950, but returned to Alabama shortly thereafter. She married Paul Andrew McConico (deceased) on November 12, 1952, in Birmingham, AL., and returned to NY where she made roots and began working at the New York telephone company.

From 1972-1978, Georgia worked at the Carlyle Hotel, then trained and worked as a Certified Nurse Assistant, at St. Luke's Hospital, until she retired in 1996. Georgia joined Lowly Nazarene Baptist Church on New Year's Day 1979, where she served as a member of the adult choir and was president of the nurses' unit.

Georgia enjoyed keeping her brain sharp doing word puzzles, watching court shows, and shopping on QVC and HSN. She always looked forward to cruising to warm islands and traveling with family. Mom was also fond of taking a spin on the slot machines at the casinos. Mom was a very good cook and the family looked forward to eating her potato salad, lasagna and sweet potato pie.

Family was of the utmost importance to her. Whether blood relation, or not, near or far. Georgia always expressed her love and affection through her warm hugs, kind words, prayers and her uncanny ability to remember birthdays and anniversaries.

Georgia was preceded in death by her mother, Alma Estelle Burkes, older sister Dorothy Mosely, younger brother, William "Sonny" Gray, and two daughters Carolyn McConico and Sheila McConico-Schrader. She leaves behind her children Alnisa Shabazz (Abu-Karriem), John Shabazz (Aretha), Roslyn Morrison (Gary), Richard McConico (Tracie), Michael McConico (Allison), Angela Riley (Paul);15 grandchildren; 17 great-grandchildren; 2 great-great grandchildren; sister-in-love Brenda Gray; Nieces Marion, Yolanda, Sandra, Angela and Jennifer, nephew Wayne, and extended family in Detroit, Chicago, Birmingham and lifelong friends.
