Obituary

Stephanie Jefferson of Bronx, NY, passed away peacefully after a long illness.

Stephanie was born in New York, NY, and was married to John Wilson, Jr., with whom she had one child, a son named John Wilson III, her only child.

She was the eldest of three girls, Nedta and Denise were her sisters.

She volunteered and participated in various community organizations, including Wakefield UMOJA AARP Chapter, Grandparents Around the World, BronxNet Community Telivisuon, and Truth of the Gospel Radio.

She was the founder of Night of 190 Tambourines Community Awards Presentation.

Stephanie is survived by her sister, Nedra Thomas; her son, John Wilson III; his wife, Karen Crump-Wilson (Maryland); and her grandchildren, Naomi Symone (Jacksonville, FL), Noah John (Baltimore, MD), and Noel Aiden (Petersburg, VA).

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
