OBITUARY

Vincent T. Morrison, son of the late Ruth Morrison Collins and Willie Stokes, was born on a bright summer day in July. Being born and raised in New York, his education started in the public school system. At a young age, he spent his summers in the South, which he loved spending time with his grandmother, aunts, uncles and cousins. As he matured into a young adult, he joined Job Corps and was part of the United States Army Reserve.

Later on, as an adult he became an employee of Columbia University as a custodian where he motivated himself to become a relamper in the electrical shop. As time moved on he trained to become a plumber/pool specialty mechanic which he also maintained as well for the students, staff and faculty. After 37 years of service he retired in October 2025.

On Saturday, November 7, 2026, he entered into eternal rest.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his loving wife Gloria Saunders Morrison, Xavier Morrison, Michael Brown (sons) Bronx, NY, Michelle Brown, Brooklyn, NY, Danielle Nykian Coatsville, PA (daughters), Willie Stokes (father Bronx, NY) Marcus Stokes (brother White Plains, NY), Lisa Stokes (sister-in-law White Plains, NY), Jaiyden Menuau (godson Brooklyn, NY) 10 grandsons Robert Zhyaire, Malik, Shameer, Jaiyden, Kayden, Auden, Michael, Jaylen, Londoyn, Amir and 2 granddaughters Daimonie, Diamaye, Naomi Morrison-Vereen (aunt Conway, SC), Lillie Mae Johnson (aunt Darlington, SC), Carlie & David Lee (aunt & uncle Hampton, VA), Harold & Sandra Greene (uncle & aunt Hampton, VA) and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

TO THOSE I LOVE

To those I love and those that love me. When I am gone, release me, let me go. I have so many things to see and do. You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears. Be happy that we had so many years. I gave you my love, you can only guess, how much you gave me in happiness. I thank you for the love you each have shown. But now it's time I travel alone. So grieve for a while for me if you must. Then let your grief be comforted by trust. It's only for a while that we must part. So bless the memories within your heart, I won't be far away, for life goes on. So if you need me, call and I will come. Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near. And if you listen with your heart you'll hear, all my love around you so soft and clear. And then, when you must come this way alone, I'll greet you with a smile and say, "Welcome Home."
