

Invictus

Out of the night that covers me, black as the pit from pole to pole, I thank whatever Gods may be for my unconquerable soul.

In the fail clutch of circumstance I have not winced nor cried out loud. Under the bludgeoning of chance my head is bloody but unbowed. Beyond this place of wrath and tears looms but the horror of the shade and yet the menace of the years finds and shall find me unafraid. It matters not how straight the gate, how charged with punishment the scroll, I am master of my fate the captain of my soul.

-William Ernest Henley

Obituary

Anderson (Andrew) Poppa Ligon was born to Robert and Gertude Ligon on June 19, 1944 in Tuskegee, Alabama.

Anderson attended the Alabama Public School system. Anderson enjoyed being by himself. His family would often refer to him as a loner and keeping things simple. One of his favorite pasttimes were: watching western movies and Price Is Right which was his favorite show.

He was united in marriage to the late Mildred Lois Council on June 13, 1965. To this union five children were born.

Anderson was preceded in death by his son, the late Errick Ligon and siblings, Eunice, Robert, Jr., Henry, Milton and Ellis, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memories: one daughter, Cosundra (James) Camp of East Orange, NJ; three sons, Anderson (Sherri) Ligon, Jr. of Cochran, GA, Bobby Ligon of Marietta, GA and Derrick (Melissa) Ligon of Sumerville, SC; his siblings, Christina, Bertha, Claretha, Edward, Adward; ten grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews and one great-grandson.

He was a passionate hunter, carpenter by trade and loved by his family and friends.
