The Obituary

“Victory is Mine! Victory is Mine! Victory today is Mine!”

For 34 years, early Sunday morning at the House of Prayer Church in Newark, NJ, you would hear this verse being sung by a lady filled with strength, faith, and most importantly, love. Not only devoted to her role as a tithing member, but she also possessed a devout loyalty to her duty as Senior Usher and greeter and demanded your obedience to the rules that governed her board. She attended Sunday school, Wednesday night Bible Study, traveled with the Pastor on all church outings, and served as an Usher wherever she journeyed. Going against the grain of being a typical Usher, this lady dressed in a white, crisply pressed Usher uniform, talked loudly, sang resoundingly, and clapped heartily. She was a God-fearing woman who truly loved and worshiped the Lord in all of her days and she had an unrelinquished joy in her heart that she desired to show.

Lucille Nehemiah, born on August 23, 1925, in Crawfordville, GA, attended Springfield High School along with her sixteen siblings. During her time as a youth in GA, she was a family oriented child who helped out with household chores, played sports, and worked in the country fields. Being the daughter of Fannie Mae Turner and Lester Turner, a Christian, hard-working, and determined spirit was instilled in her at a very young age.

Traveling to Newark around the age of 16 years old, Lucille began her career at Plessey Dynamics; a plane part engineering and manufacturing company. There, at the age of 65, she retired. During her retirement, Lucille absolutely loved playing Bingo. In addition, she was a faithful servant as she always visited the sick and shut-in, and did volunteer and charity work such as providing food for the homeless.

Lucille Nehemiah departed this life on May 3, 2010 resting peacefully at home.

She leaves to cherish her memory her one sister, Annie Adams, and her two brothers, Daniel Turner and Walter Lee Turner, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
