Reflections of Life

Rudolph V. Whitaker, Sr. was born on July 5, 1926 in Camden, South Carolina to the late Gent Whitaker and Elzema Brewer Whitaker.

Rudolph was educated in the Camden School system and later joined the United States Army during World War II. After being honorably discharged from the US Army, he relocated to Paterson, NJ in 1948 and in 2005 to Wayne, NJ when his health began to fail. He was employed as a Truck Driver for many years before retiring.

He departed this life on May 4, 2010.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Gent Whitaker and Elzema Whitaker, two brothers, Jack Whitaker and Jimmy (Bubba) English and a son, Edwin Whitaker.

He leaves to cherish his precious memories: two daughters, Gloria Lord of Cambridge, Mass, and Lorraine Whitaker of Paterson, NJ; one son, Rudolph V. Whitaker, Jr. of Bridgewater, Mass; two sisters, Annie Sears of Williamsburg, VA, and Jean Holmes of Massachusetts; two grandchildren, Rudolph Sterling Whitaker and Dwayne Whitaker of Woonsocket, RI; one son-in-law, Jessie Miller; one brother-in-law, Carl Sears; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors

Carry On My Children

*Carry on my children
And do not weep.
For today is not the end
But instead the beginning.
Carry on my children
You must be strong
For I am home with the Lord
And I am free from all that ails me.
Carry on my children
And keep my memory alive
Remember our laughter
And all the joys we shared.
So until we meet again
Carry on my dear children
For one day we will all be free.*

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
