

To my Darling Cousin who my children and I took as an Aunt. I remember you took me in your arms when I was a child with chickenpox and other child ailments.
I will always remember how you helped me as a child.

Rosalie and William Together Again

You taught me so much. I will see you in the sweet bye and bye.

Love You Forever,
Ruth King

Those we love must someday pass

beyond our present sight.

They must leave us and the world we know

with their lights.

But we know that like a candle,

Their love will shine to brighten up another place.

More perfect more divine

And in the realm of Heaven

where it shines so warm and bright

Our loved ones live forevermore

In God's eternal light.

Rosalie Charles

Rosalie Charles was born on September 11, 1920 in Oswego, South Carolina, the daughter of Marcus Spann and Rena Pogue.

Rosalie attended elementary school in Lee County, South Carolina and received her high school education at Moore High School in Sumter, South Carolina. She joined the Mechanicville A.M.E. Church in Lee County, South Carolina at an early age and was a faithful member until she moved to Brooklyn, New York with her aunt, the late Louise Williams. She worked in Brooklyn to help her family back home.

She later met and married William Charles. They moved to Linden, New Jersey and joined the Greater Mt. Moriah Baptist Church where she was a faithful member and served on the Usher Board of the church.

Rosalie was employed as a manager at Gallery Tags Clothing Company in Elizabeth until she retired.

She was predeceased by her loving husband of fifty-five years, William "Juckie" Charles, Sr. in 1999, two brothers, Moses and Herman "Guy" Spann, a sister, Algie Mae Myers and a niece, Gloria Spann Wilson.

Rosalie Charles leaves to cherish fond memories: her son, William "Little Butch" Charles, Jr. and his wife, Honey of Lihue, HI; a godson, Albert Jenkins of Waldorf, MD who she cherished as a son; five grandchildren, Joi Kanani (Nate) of Hawaii, Danny Woods (Laura) of New Jersey, Jade, Echo (Sara) of California and Kenyatta (Emma) of New York; three great grandchildren, Imani, Kenalu and Nia all of Hawaii; a stepdaughter, Irene "Studdy" McDaniel; one nieces, Diane Spann Walter of Brooklyn, NY; a close cousin, Ruth King of Charlotte, NC; a sister-in-law, Doris Spann of Pennsylvania; a caregiver, Jamillah Sirmans; and a host of other relatives and friends. She will be missed by all of them but God took her to rest in peace.
