Obituary

Jacqueline Bertha Wilson of Hillside, New Jersey, passed away on Friday, May 7, 2010 at her home in Hillside, the home she loved so much. Jackie, as she was affectionately known, was born on June 18, 1931 in Newark, New Jersey, the sixth child of the late Bertha Blanche Wilson and the late Stanley Allen Wilson, Sr. She was preceded in death by four of her siblings, Ada Walters, Dorothy Cranfield, Stanley Allen Wilson, Jr. and Constance Lorraine Wilson.

Jackie was baptized at the First Mt. Zion Baptist Church in Newark. She was educated through the Newark School system and after graduating from South Side High School, she attended the Drake Business School. Jackie, after twenty-five years of employment with RCA in Harrison, worked at Bristol Meyers in Hillside and Becton Dickinson in East Rutherford, New Jersey.

Jackie was a gifted seamstress and often made garments for friends and family members alike. She also enjoyed cooking and decorating her home. She was a regular volunteer at events sponsored by the Lions Club of Hillside and the Hillside Senior Citizens Center. Jackie was always ready and willing to help anyone at anytime. The word “no” was not a part of her vocabulary. She spoke kindly of everyone she knew.

Jackie is survived and sadly missed by: her sister, Geraldine Wilson; her two brothers, Carl Wilson and Carroll Wilson; three sisters-in-law, Cora Wilson, Carol Wilson and Muriel Wilson; godchildren, Gail and Martin Wilson; and a host of nephews, nieces, grand nephews, grand nieces and numerous friends.

The Order of Worship

The Musical Prelude

*The Call to Worship Isaiah 41:10&13

“Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God.

I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you,

I will uphold you with my right hand. “

For I, the Lord your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, “Fear not, I will help you.”

A

A million times we have needed her,
A million times we have cried,
If love alone could have spared her
Jackie never would have died.

Tribute

If all the world was ours to give,
We would give it; yes, and more;
To see her coming up our steps,
And walking through our doors,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
To sit and talk with her awhile.

To be with her the same old way,
Would be our fondest with today.

A heart of gold stop beating,
Two smiling eyes closed to rest.
Our hearts are severely broken,
Because we lost the best.

Acknowledgments

The saying of mere words cannot convey how deeply grateful we are for all the acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy that you have bestowed upon us during our time immense grief. Thank you for understanding and sharing in our loss. The Wilson Family

“And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes;
There shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying
There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away.”
