Obituary

Dupuy Chery was born on April 26, 1968 in Cap-Haitien, Haiti, West Indies. He was one among three children born to Louis Chery and Carmelia Dume.

Dupuy migrated to the United States in 1990. He lived in Florida for two years then moved to New Jersey in 1992.

Relatives and friends were all touched by his strength of character and courage. He was strong minded, dedicated, and loving. His dream has always been to go back and start a business in Haiti.

We all have our distinct memories of times spent with Dupuy; his generosity, his laughter, respect of others, and giving personality. Dupuy has always placed himself at the giving end. Dupuy will never be forgotten for his cooking and baking skills. He catered every single party and other events at our house since he became part of our family seven years ago.

He is survived by: his two beautiful children, Lindsley Chery and Starlina Chery; his father, Louis Chery; his brother, Fred Chery; his nephews-in-law, Jean Damour, Roland Damour and Emanuel Lafleur.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;

Good friends, good times,
a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgments

The family acknowledges with sincere appreciation the many kind deeds and comforting expressions of sympathy extended to them in their time of sorrow. May God continue to bless each of you.
