Obituary

Ebenezer Hill affectionately called Nezer by his family and friends was born to Mr. Emmett E. Hill and Miss Amada M. Davis on January 19, 1985 in Monrovia, Liberia West Africa.

In Liberia, West Africa, Ebenezer attended John Lewis United Methodist Elementary School. He later enrolled in Don Bosco Technical High School, one of the top high schools in Liberia. There he learned electronics, art and crafts, and technical drawings, in addition to his regular academic studies. He then enrolled in the College of West Africa High School (CWA) before departing for America. He was also a prominent member of the Cowfield Du-Port Road community soccer team.

Ebenezer traveled to the United States in February of 2007. If you knew Nezer, you knew that he loved to smile, a good party, and a good joke. Everyone he came into contact with loved him dearly.

He leaves to mourn: his parents, Emmett E. Hill and Rachel N. Hill of the USA, and mother, Amada M. Davis of Liberia; sisters, Aurelia N. Hill, Ebun E. Hill, Velma Togba, Marilyn N. Browne, and Brenda K. Browne; two brothers, Hector Weah and Trokon George; grand-aunts, Jemima, Joko, Ayo, Bosa, and Aina Caulcrick; uncles, William, Clarence, and Isaac Hill, George Brown, Tomalin and Othello George; aunts, Aurelia Hill Weah, Jane, and Marie Hill, Mardea George Bryant, Musu Sonnie Williams, Ophelia George Campbell, Veronica S. George, Vivian George Freeman, Patience George Sieh; and many cousins, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives, and many friends.

We will always love you Nezer!

Weep Not For Me

Weep not for me
though I am gone
Into the gentle night
Grieve if you will,
but not for long
Upon my souls sweet flight.
There is no need for tears.
I am at peace, my soul is at rest
There is no pain, I suffer not,
For with your love I was so blessed.
I am in a place of comfort
The fear now is gone.
Put those things out of your thoughts,
In your memory I live on.
Remember not my fight for breath
Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
But celebrate my life
