Obituary

Vertelia Wilson was born on January 18, 1939 in Oxford, North Carolina to the late Ed and Adell Wilson. Vertelia departed this life on June 1, 2010. She was predeceased by one brother, Roy Wilson of Newark, NJ and three sisters, Louise Dalton of Newark, NJ, Ann Graham of Oxford, North Carolina and Edna Mae Wilson of Oxford, North Carolina.

Vertelia was educated at Mary Potter High School in Oxford, North Carolina. In July of 1957, she was blessed with one daughter, Cynthia V. Wilson (Davis) and loving companion Joseph Thomas of fifty plus years.

In 1957, Vertelia relocated to Newark, NJ where she worked at Berlax Pharmaceutical Company for many years. Finally, Vertelia worked for Mr. And Mrs. Scott Pinkus as a caregiver where she retired with a special love for Emily and Jenny Pinkus.

Vertelia was a loving, courageous and strong woman. She loved her family and friends. She would step to the plate at anytime, open her heart and doors to those in need.

Vertelia leaves her precious memory to be cherished by: her only daughter, Cynthia V. Davis of Newark, NJ; lifelong companion of 50+ years, Joseph Thomas; special son-in-law, Paul Talete Scaife; two sisters-in-law, Lillian Wilson and Ida Jean Overby of Oxford, NC; three grandchildren, Alfuquan, Aaliyah and Aliquan Davis of Newark, NJ; five grandchildren; four nephews; eight nieces; special thanks to niece, Elaine Dalton of Newark, NJ; a special friend, Mary Cheeseboro of Newark, NJ and a host of other relatives and friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each and every one of us must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me-but let me go.

Acknowledgements

The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown during this hour of bereavement.

May God Bless and Keep You!
