Obituary

Elizabeth (Harrington Robinson) was the daughter of the late Henry Buster, Sr. and Louise Ingram Harrington. Elizabeth was born April 17, 1928 in Rockingham North Carolina. She made her Heavenly transition at the Jersey City Medical Center on Friday June 4, 2010.

At a young age she met and married Sergeant Doloes Robinson. Elizabeth and her husband moved to Jersey City, New Jersey where they became the parents of fourteen children. Elizabeth always considered herself blessed because she never had to work. She was taken very good care of by her husband, Doloes. She was a born again Christian who raised her children in the church. Elizabeth loved the Lord, loved singing gospel music and could really carry a tune.

She was affectionately known as “Mother Robinson”. Elizabeth would minister the Word of God to those far and near. She was considered as someone who could get a prayer through to the Lord. She was sought out by many people who just wanted her to pray for them. Elizabeth was a Prophetess who was truly ordained by God. If Mother Robinson told you something the Lord said you could guarantee that it would come to past. She was very inspirational in assisting young people who wanted to know more about the Lord. Elizabeth loved to shop with her daughters and eat out. They would spend many of their Saturdays at Burlington Coat Factory and Marshall’s. She lived to make her children happy. Elizabeth would often give her children large sums of money. She would say now don’t tell your father. She was known on Lexington Avenue as Grandma Robinson, Granny and Mother Robinson. Elizabeth took very good care of the young people on the block. She held annual cook outs in her yard and made sure that everyone ate well.

Elizabeth is survived by: her husband of 67 years, Doloes Robinson; seven daughters, Bettie Best, Minister Bertha Reels (Earl), Gloria Chatham (Glendon), Montrale Simmons (Keith), Jada Thompson, Vernetta Robinson and Lazonia White; one son, Thomas Robinson; two sisters-in-law, Roxy Harrington and June Harrington; loving goddaughter, Keecia Wilkes; twenty grandchildren; thirty four great grandchildren; special grandchildren, Gloria Pierre Lewis (Emmanuel) Deisy and Marcus Ulloa; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends. She was predeceased by four children, Esther Jefferson, Doloes Robinson Jr., Lavern Robinson Bailey and John Robinson, one sister, Lula May Harrington, brothers, Henry Clay, Marshall, Buster, Jasper, Odell, James, Walter Lee, Glenn and John Harrington.

To Grandma

Grandma by watching you and how generous you were with your love, your wisdom and your time we have learned how to genuinely care about others. Being loved by you has taught us that kindness is the greatest gift but we are the blessed ones because we had a wonderful grandmother like you. Grandma you will truly be missed. We love you very mush. You will always be in our hearts and our thoughts. We will forever cherish your love.
Love your grandchildren.
