Reflections of Life

Dorothy Mae Strong, affectionately known as “Dottie”, was one of nine children born to the late Durant and Ethel Melvin Barr on February 8, 1950, in Kingstree, South Carolina.

Dottie was raised and educated in Kingstree, SC. She also attended Job Corps in Biloxi, MS. As a daring and adventurous person she left Kingstree at a young age and moved to Belle Glade, FL, where she met and married her now deceased husband Clinton Colquitt. As a single mother, she decided to move first to Paterson, NJ before moving to Philadelphia, PA. After several years in Philadelphia, she relocated to Haledon, NJ where she has resided for the past twenty years.

Dottie was a devoted Mother, Grandmother, and friend to all she knew, always lending a helping hand. She was very supportive of her pastor, church family, and she loved the Lord. She could always be trusted to tell you exactly how she felt about things. She worked hard her entire life and would give away everything she earned to her family.

On Thursday, June 24, 2010, God in His infinite wisdom, dispatched one of His angels to bring His child home.

Dorothy was an active member of Hope and Deliverance Holiness Church of God in Paterson, NJ.

Dorothy's daughter, Kathy Colquitt, a son, one brother, Tommy Barr, and one sister, Virginia Barr preceded her in death.

Dorothy leaves to cherish: three daughters, Tangela D. Moore of Haledon NJ, Shannon Heard (Christopher) of California, and Quanda Taliaferro (Brian) of Philadelphia; four grandchildren, Ellicia, Taylor, Chatiera, and Alyssa; one aunt, Helen; three brothers, Durant (Brother) Barr of Ft. Lauderdale, FL, James Barr (Evelyn) of Philadelphia and George Barr (Ora Lee) of Georgia; three sisters, Emma Lee Pendergrass (Durant) of Manning, SC, Caretha Graves of Kingstree, SC and Elizabeth Wilder of Paterson, NJ; sister-in-law, Cheryl Barr of Paterson, NJ; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I'm Free

*I'm free
Finally
To be with the Lord
To be with all his angels
Now I am one
I'm free from all pain and sorrow
Hurt and stress
I'm free to be happy with the Lord
Happy to serve him
Happy to be well taken care of Won't have to worry about a thing
Because I'm free*
