The Obituary

Henriette Eustache was born on August 28, 1926 in the small town of Jeremie, Haiti.

She later migrated to Port-Au-Prince, then eventually to the United States where she was a resident of West Orange, NJ.

After a long battle with several respiratory and cardiovascular complications, she passed peacefully and silently at St. Barnabas Hospital on June 29, 2010.

Henriette Eustache was known for her kindheartedness and giving spirit. There was not one person that she did not positively effect. It is with the peace in her heart, and joy in her soul, that she rests with the angels in heaven.

She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory: three daughters, Arriane Eustache, Guilda Dormevil (Roland) and Myrna Eustache; one son, Gary Methelus; seven grandchildren, Nadine Eustache (Emmanuel Rosmond), Sindy Eustache, Vladimir Jean-Pierre (Piquion Jacques), Yrvika Dormevil, Roguilky Dormevil, Alex Eustache and Aleph Pantaleon; great grandchildren, Jahvid and Heila Rosmond, Keylah Jacques and Exavier Eustache; and dear family friends, Josie Michel, Clifton Jean-Phillip, Jocelyn and the Jean-Baptiste family; as well as her favorite pet, Lucky; and a host of other relatives and friends.

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
