The Obituary

Mrs. Frances Warice Moore, daughter of the late James and Essie Mae Shark, was born on June 4, 1942 in Dawson, Georgia.

Frances later moved to Newark, NJ. She met and married William T. Moore Sr. on December 17, 1960. She was later married to Joseph Lasenberry on September 24, 1982. In Frances' early years, she joined Union Baptist Church and was a member of the young adult choir.

She earned her high school diploma from South Side High School. Frances obtained a certificate from Micro Tech Training Center in computer usage and attended Essex County Community College where she took courses in English and reading.

Frances was a retired employee of PSE&G in Newark, NJ. She was working for Leagues as a classroom aide through Clear View Baptist Church in Newark, NJ. She was a great latin dancer, to her partner Joseph Lasenberry Sr. Frances loved to help and often volunteered her services. She received a certificate of honor from Newark Literacy Campaign and from the American Cancer Society Phone-A-Thon.

She was the eldest of seven siblings. Frances was an intelligent, strong willed and caring person. Her heart was so large that she had it open to everyone. If ever you had a problem that needed to be solved, Frances was there. If you just needed a friend to talk to, Frances was there. She loved her family and grand and great grandchildren with all her heart.

Frances entered into eternal rest on Monday, June 28, 2010, in Beth Israel Hospital. She was preceded in death by her siblings, Robert Shark, Melvin Shark and Irene Poole, a son-in-law, Joseph G. Lasenberry, as well as a daughter-in-law, Tracey Moore.

She is survived by two sons, William and Glenn; One daughter-in-law, Neshell Moore; ten grandchildren, Katrina, Chanice, Travis, Frances, Cory, Otis, Omar, Nigel, Sharon and Glenia; three great grandchildren, Keyshawn, Kyrie and Quamire; three siblings, Lottie Bridgeforth, James Shark and Lillian Shark; three stepsisters, Volencia Anderson, Venessa Chambers and Andria Lasenberry; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephew, cousins and friends.

God Knows That You Are A Star

It's your day to be a star, just the way you always are. When it's time for you to go to Heaven, what will you do to see JESUS? Before you go to Heaven, what will you be thinking of? What will happen? Will you be thinking of JESUS? Will you be thinking of GOD, or will you be thinking of the LORD.

Well I know what I would say, huh, and what I will say, "it's your day to be a star, just the way you always are," this is the day that the LORD has made let us rejoice and be glad in it." When I think of what the LORD has done for me, I shout "Hallelujah" to myself. "Home sweet home." I think of what GOD has done for me. When I am in my bed I say to myself, "shout, shout, let it all out, these are the things I cannot do without," so come on, I know that He's talking to me I know He is talking to you. Thank you, Jesus, God and our Lord for making us all a winning star.

Thank you and GOD Bless YOU.

(by Sharon Moore)

Lord,

Make me an instrument of your Peace
Where there is hatred, let me sow Love;
Where there is injury - Pardon;
Where there is doubt - Faith;
Where there is despair - Hope;
Where there is darkness - Light;
And where there is sadness - Joy.

Lord,

Grant that I may seek rather to Comfort than be comforted,
to Understand rather than to be understood,
to Love than to be loved.
For it is by Giving that one receives,
by Forgiving that one is forgiven,
and by Dying that one awakens to Eternal Life

Acknowledgement

The family of Frances Warice Moore would like to thank each of you for giving your love and your support in everything you have done. We love you. Maybe it was you, who during these hours of bereavement bestowed encouraging words, prayers, kindness, meekness and arm of love. Maybe you just smiled and kept the thoughts clear with peace. To you and you, we thank you and may the Lord thy God, bless each one of you real good.
