Obsequies

Chonstion W. Wooten was born on July 6, 1943 in Jersey City, New Jersey to the late Francis Louis and Suiza Mary Wooten. He was the eldest of his four siblings blessed to this union.

Chonstion, born and raised in Jersey City, attended PS 14 and the Henry Synder High School, he went on to receive his GED in the United States Air Force. After his honorable separation from military service, he continued with the Federal government as a mail handler for the United States Post Office for many years before his long awaited retirement.

Chonstion possessed an array of talents, he had a strong love for music preferably songs with meaning. He had two favorite songs that expressed his inner soul, "I won't complain" and one by Marvin Sapp "The Best of Me"if he wasn't singing these songs he was playing them on his cd.

He enjoyed many simple things in life like taking long walks, playing basketball, trips to Atlantic City and taking the kids to Great Adventure Amusement Park, going to museums and going to the movies.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Louis Wooten.

Chonstion Whitney Wooten will live in the hearts and minds of those he loved: loving father of Paul Alston (Elaine), Keith, Keshia, Louis and Lamonte Wooten and Patrice Whaley; precious grandfather of Justin, Lamarr, Deshawn, Jasmine, Josephine, Octavia, Louis, Avian, Jabori and Lamonte; adored brother of Dorothy Burroughs (Richard) and Francine Charles (Richmond); caring cousin of Willi Mae Johnson; a host of darling nieces, Francine Wooten and Phelarn Walker-Curry; grand nieces and nephews, Corinthia Wooten, Christopher Wooten, Johnnie Curry, Zoe Curry, Phelarn Curry, Elijah Thomas and Louis Hughes-Curry; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Daddy, The Memories I Have Of You

Daddy, the memories I have of you,
from tying my shoes, to riding my bike....remember?

Wow, I forgot what that was like.....

From finding a dog and you would say....
he can come along too.

To swimming lessons to soft ball practice.

Wow I remember those father and daughter sessions

Standing on your shoes, roller coaster rides, school, prom, graduation day and any given situation you were there all of the time.

....yeah I remember it all.

I guess what I am trying to say...

I have so many good memories of you,
and the good outweigh the bad

God says, "no one is perfect".

all of your accomplishments yes you deserve it you always found something to do.

Now God said, "you did your best now come on home,
your work is done!"

Lovingly, your #2 daughter, Kesha.....

Rest...Rest Daddy.

Acknowledgements

The family would like to take this opportunity to extend their sincere appreciation for the many kind expressions of sympathy. May God bless and keep each one of you in his tender loving care.
