Obituary

Adrian Carnegie Price was born on February 5, 1956 in Newark, New Jersey. He attended Newton St. Elementary then he graduated on to Weequahic High School, both located in Newark, NJ. Afterwards, he pursued a degree in Political Science at William Paterson College of New Jersey in Wayne, NJ for three years.

Adrian held many jobs throughout his lifetime. He began as a driver for a pizzeria. He moved on to become the floor manager at the Bamberger's Warehouse in Bloomfield. Later he worked as a Driver/Tech at the Association for Retarded Citizens in Newark. When he became interested in understanding the mechanics of motor vehicles, he entered Apex Technical School. After he became an ASE certified Auto Technician, he was immediately hired by the school. Adrian had bigger aspirations of becoming an entrepreneur, so he began rendering his services to friends, family, and the new customers he would meet through referrals from other satisfied customers. Adrian continued to work towards his dream of ownership of an automobile repair shop up until his last day on this planet.

He was one of six children born to the late Jacob and Rosa Price and was the beloved husband of Darlene Price. Adrian will forever be remembered by his devoted brother, Jackie Eutsey, loving sisters, Barbara Baker and LuAnn Price, beloved children, Dana Price and Robert Price, treasured grandchild, Makeda Price, along with countless other family members and friends whom were blessed to know him.

Adrian loved listening to a variety of music; especially Jimi Hendrix and Eric Clapton. He enjoyed playing the guitar, which he taught himself beginning at age 12 with an acoustic. Adrian enjoyed laughing, being with his family, having fun with friends and sharing his wealth of knowledge on vehicles with anyone. He was naturally an introvert with extrovert attributes. He was very philosophical in his views on life. He frequently quoted Bruce Lee's advice, "Be like water." Adrian lived a life where he had to adapt to situations around him often. Adrian's work ethic and dedication to perfecting his craft touched the lives of everyone he came in contact with. We all will remember his smile we have been deprived of; and the generosity, professionalism, humor, and trademark perceptive sense of life he maintained all the way to the end.

Adrian finally gets to join his cherished sister, Mary Ellen Burnett, adored brother, Russell Price, darling mother, Rosa Price, and his revered father, Jacob Price.

Measure Of A Man

Not - How did he die? But - How did he live?
Not - What did he gain? But - What did he give?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Not - What was his station? But - had he a heart?
And - How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?
To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not - What was his church? Not - What was his creed?
But - Had he befriended those really in need?

Not - What did the sketch in the newspaper say?
But - How many were sorry when he passed away?

These are the things that measure the worth
Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.
