I'm Coming Home

I hear voices do I ignore...
I'm with my brother Joe and Curt,
We just came from the liquor store...
Boy now I got my Gin, and you
Can't tell me this is a sin.... Let's
Head back up the tracks, and race
One mo gain... I smile when
I see my kids, yea they look and act
Just like me, Tyreek, Marvin, Pam and David is how I started my family Tree...
I lived my life my way, fixing cars
And fusing you out, and by the end
Of the night the Boy's had to wheel
Me out the house... Now the Boy's
Have gone on, an I have seen my Better days, as I open my heart to JoAnn's Prayer, I'm no longer dealing
With the struggle of dispair...
My wife Grace gripped my hand,
Knowing I don't want to be alone.
I took a deep breath and told the boys,
I'm coming Home.

P.S. We Love you Grandpa Randy
