Obituary

Jonathan Spradley was born on May 24, 1977 in Far Rockaway, New York.

At the age of 15, he moved to Columbus, Ohio. He attended Mifflin High School. After, he attended Wilberforce University. In 1998, he joined the United States Air Force where he met and later married Jennifer Cesarotti. Through this union Jacquay Quintin Spradley was born. Soon after, he was Honorably Discharged from the Air Force and moved to Pittsfield, Massachusetts where he worked various jobs.

In 2006, he moved back to New York and soon after started working for the VA Hospital as a Patient Services Representative.

Jonathan was a hard working, dedicated individual, as well as a great friend and devoted father. He loved music and always had a little bop in his step. Always a smile on his face and willing to help when needed. He was loved by all who knew him.

He leaves to mourn: parents, Milton and Jacqueline; one son, Jacquay; an ex-wife, Jennifer; four sisters, Elizabeth Spradley-Johnson (Kevin), Jennifer, Ida and Annie Spradley-Lewis (Paul); five nephews, Kevin Jr., Kristopher, Jacyl, Ajoni and Bryce; one niece, Taylor; special cousins, Timothy and Clytemnestra Clarke, Dionesha Clarke-Logan (Ocie), Joscelyn R. Clarke, Pamela Clarke and Quentin Granger (Tanya); and a host of other dear friends, especially Anthony "Man" Brown, as well as other relatives.

I'm

Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
