Obituary

Annabelle Edwards was born to John Small and Louise Smith on September 29, 1926 in Cross, South Carolina.

At an early age, she opened her heart to God when she joined the church. She attended high school in New York and graduated from Roosevelt LPN School of Nursing in New York City, and retired as a dedicated nurse.

Annabelle passed away suddenly on October 6, 2010 at 12:00 Noon at Columbia Presbyterian Hospital. She was married to the late Nathaniel Edwards in New York City.

She leaves to mourn: two brothers, Robert Small of South Carolina and Anthony Small of Maryland - three brothers preceded her in death, James Small, Thomas Small and Alan Small; three sisters, Paula Small-Pitts of Maryland, Johnnie Mae Deschweinitz of New Mexico and Janice Small of California - one sister, Karen Small, preceded her in death. She will also be mourned by her beloved goddaughter, Jocelyn Garraway.

Annabelle's goal in life was to help people and care for the sick. Her hobbies included musical plays and traveling.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
