Obituary

Louise Guerrero was born in Harlem, New York to proud parents Edward and Theresa Heyward on March 26, 1941. She was called home by the Lord on October 5, 2010. She is rejoined in love with her husband, Andres Sr., her parents, a brother, Edward Jr. and two sisters, Sylvia & Carmen.

She leaves behind: a dear brother, Alfred, six cherished children, Earl, Julia, Andres Jr., Anthony, Sabrina and Ronald; thirteen treasured grandchildren, Earl Jr., Quentin, Devin, Erica, De'Andre, Tyreke, Eddie, Anthony Jr., Jamel, twins Aspen and Asiah, Ascian and Andres III; three beloved great grandchildren, Da'Sean, Kyere and Drahcir, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, the family's wonderful friend to the end, Artheler, and a tremendous amount of close family supporters including the Tracey Towers community where she resided for over three decades.

Louise spent many years working in the field of nursing until her retirement in the mid 1990's. She loved spending time with her children and family. She lived for the holidays when she would gather family and friends to share and enjoy unforgettable-precious moments. She made many sacrifices for her children and saw to it that they wanted for nothing. Louise was an excellent mother and a tower of power. She extended her heart and home with love to many.

Louise's death leaves a heart ache that is very difficult to heal. Her love leaves countless beautiful memories that no one can steal. We are comforted in knowing that she is resting in a better place. We feel extremely fortunate to have her valuable legacy that will live on through each of us.

We will forever miss our Mother, our Pretty Sweet Smelling Flower, our Sister, our Auntie, our Grandmother, our Cousin, our Friend our Everything, our Warrior, our Queen!!

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
