Widince Julien, was born on August 8, 1945 and departed this life on October 24, 2010 at the St. Luke Hospital in New York City, New York.

Jean Claude was the older brother to fourteen brothers and sisters and married Marie Georgette Alexis. Jean Claude was a highly respected man in his family as well as among the people who knew him. He was known as Uncle Jean Claude to his many nieces and nephews who loved him and whom he loved. He was a very kind and loving individual who took the time to gently give advice and direction to his many brothers and sisters. He loved his family, Haiti, music and spending time with his good friends.

He is survived by: his wife, Georgette Julien; children, Claude Ricard, Westley, Jimmy and Bettyna; grandchildren, Allyssa, Jaquetta, Shaquille, Claude Richard, Jarod, Corey and Youyi; his brothers, Joubert, Pierre Andre Mard, Wildence, Daniel and Silvera; sisters, Marie Jocelyne, Marie-Carmel, Yvrose, Anelia, Marlene, Marie Ange, Pierreta, Rose Andre and Avriette; and many nephews, nieces and other family members and friends.

1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

13 Brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, or to grieve like the rest of men, who have no hope. 14 We believe that Jesus died and rose again and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. 15 According to the Lord's own word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left till the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. 18 Therefore encourage each other with these words.

Interment

My heart is relieved as it is breaking
My soul is freed but bound by threads of grief
My mouth is smiling as tears roll down my face
My ears hear all but the voice I long to hear
I remember his eyes, so full of love and patience
I remember his laughter, so very contagious
He walked in silence with a confident stride
Stopping along the way to touch lives with his smile.

I know he’s happy with my God above
I know he’s free of misery, sadness and pain
Because of this knowledge that I bear in my heart
The smile I carry today is real, despite the tears rolling down my face
