Obituary

Mrs. Pamela Benjamin, the second oldest of three children was born to James Snyder, Jr. and the late Mary Ann Polite Snyder on March 13, 1956 in Harlem, New York. She received her education attending public school and graduated receiving her diploma from the H.S. of Fashion Industries. She then attended Bronx Community College later transferring to Long Island University where she received her Bachelor's in Computer Science. After completing her education, she worked at Chemical Bank as a Head Loan Officer.

She was extremely outgoing and participated in many activities including her membership in the Travelers Drums & Bugle Corp and the YWCA. With her participation in the YWCA she was a contestant in the Miss Upper Manhattan Pageant.

On August 5, 1978, Pamela was joined in holy matrimony with Harold Benjamin, Sr. and of this union was blessed with three beautiful children, Harold, Jr., Sereena and Tameeka Benjamin.

Mrs. Pamela Benjamin was a great daughter, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother and a very good friend. She was one of a kind; didn't bite her tongue for anyone, outspoken and said what she had to say but always from the heart. Her lifelong philosophy was to live life to it's fullest everyday. She was a woman who loved her family and a strong believer of family traditions and devoted her life to her children. She was an extremely intelligent woman who instilled in her children the significance of a good education and the importance of maintaining a strong family bond while helping others. Pamela left a lasting impression on everyone she met, with her questions, comments and her unforgettable cheerful smile.

On the morning of January 27, 2011 at the age of 54, God saw fit to call his precious angel from her earthly duties into a higher calling.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories: her husband, Mr. Harold Benjamin, Sr.; one son, Mr. Harold Benjamin, Jr. (Michelle); two daughters, Ms. Sereena Benjamin and Ms. Tameeka Benjamin; two grandchildren, Harold Benjamin, III and Juan Tinch, Jr.; her father, Mr. James Snyder, Jr.; sister, Mrs. Deborah Snyder Ebron Mitchell (Robert); brother, Mr. James Snyder, III (Kimberly); four aunts, Mrs. Elizabeth Cash, Mrs. Mary Snyder, Ms. Helene Snyder; and a very special Aunt Pearl (Mrs. Pearl Harris and Everett); mother-in-law, Mrs. Willie Mae Benjamin; three sisters-in-law; three brothers-in-law; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

No Other Love Like Mother's Love

*A mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and
sacrifice and pain,*

*It is endless and unselfish and enduring come what may
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away...*

*It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking...
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems...*

*It is far beyond defining, it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation...*

*A many splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.*
