

In Loving Memory of William Fred Goodwin

A portrait of an elderly Black man with a receding hairline, wearing a dark suit jacket, a white collared shirt, and a dark patterned tie. He is looking slightly to the right of the camera with a neutral expression. The background is a soft-focus sunset or sunrise over a body of water, with warm golden and orange tones.

Obituary

William F. Goodwin was born on December 27, 1920 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late Tom and Sarah Goodwin.

He was educated in Charleston, South Carolina. He was drafted into the US Army from 1943 to 1945. He served as US Army Military Police during WWII.

William and his childhood sweetheart wedded on February 10, 1945. This union produced five sons.

William worked at Consolidated Laundrys for thirty-seven years, keeping clothes clean for the tri state area.

He was affectionately known as “Big Daddy” then “Uncle Big” to all his nieces and nephews. He was known to have a “good” toast in his hand, jokes on his lips and a big open heart. He was a charming, dependable and honorable man. He will be greatly missed. He was also known as the family’s biggest “cry baby”.

William leaves to mourn: his wife, Ada; two sons, Anthony and Barrie; four brothers, Oscar (Shirley) James (Doris), Harold (Florence) and Robert (Thomasina); five grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and dear friends.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
