

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Louis Elijah Elder, Jr. was born on October 21, 1957 in Montgomery, AL to Louis Elijah Elder, Sr. and Martha Elder. He was a resident of Newark, NJ.

Louis attended East Orange High School. He later fulfilled one of his long-term educational goals in 2011 by attending Star Career Academy and becoming a certified Dialysis Technician and a certified Phlebotomy Technician.

Prior to pursuing his recent educational endeavors, Louis spent his career as a professional truck driver. His travels allowed him to experience various cultures and people all over the country. Naturally these experiences only fueled his ambition to continue to become a more well-rounded, more knowledgeable person. Louis was well-read and a person of impeccable vernacular.

Louis Elijah Elder, Jr., 54, passed away on Sunday, August 26, 2012.

He leaves to mourn and cherish his memory: his children, including his eldest daughter, Clene` Shamere Elder, Louis Joseph Elder, Tarolyn Queen Elder, Louis Elijah Elder, III, Elijah Louis Elder, and his only grandchild, Eleora Christine Ediagbonya. Louis also has surviving siblings, Karl Elder, Juana Elder, Rodney Elder, Ronald (Shawn) Elder; and many cousins, nieces and nephews.
