Obituary

We are gathered here today, to honor the memory of a loving Husband, Father, Grandfather, Brother, Uncle, and Friend Oscar Lee Williams, so that together we may acknowledge and share both our joy in the gift that his life was to us, and the pain that his passing brings. In sharing the joy and the pain together today, may we lessen the pain and remember more clearly the joy.

On May 13, 1935, Alma McDaniel gave birth to her eldest son Oscar in Durham, North Carolina. Migrating up North to Newark, New Jersey is where Oscar was raised by his loving family along with his two younger sisters, Lucy Hill and Patricia McDaniel. Oscar's family expanded in his late twenties when he had his daughter Lisa Clark in 1961 and later marrying the love of his life Joann Williams on September 4, 1973, spending 44 years of life, love, and commitment.

Oscar was a hardworking man who loved to keep busy. After High School, he always kept a job to make ends meet and to provide for his family. In his early adult life, Oscar was a Baker in a small popular Bakery in Newark. Shortly after, he ventured off into the field of Security where he became a Security Guard in the Iron Bound area of Newark. In his later years, he was employed by the Newark Board of Education working as a Custodial Worker in Westside High School for 27 years, retiring in 2009.

In his retirement, he loved listening to music, being with his family, and helping others. Oscar had a very big heart and was admired and loved by so many. He was a reliable man who was always there for his family and friends. Oscar was also a humble man; he never liked to be the center of attention. In life and now in death, he wouldn't want us to focus on him. He wouldn't want us to focus on the sadness of his death, but instead focus on the happiness in our lives. He would want us to appreciate each other and our future.

He is survived by his life partner, Joann Williams; His sisters, Lucy Hill and Patricia McDaniel; His brothers-in-law, Leroy Bennett and Jerry Albright; His sisters-in-law, Jeanett Brown and Retha Reynolds; His son-in-law Myron Clark; His granddaughters, Mary Clark, Chanel Clark, and Myra Clark and a host of other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You, Whatever the part.
